

With This Issue of the Democrat

We make our bow--a hearty hand-shake to the good people of Anadarko, little and big, old and young. We would not leave out our most worthy brother competitor, no, no. We extend you a hearty greeting and wish you success in your business enterprise. We have planted our standard in Anadarko--please consider us one of you, a bona fide citizen in every sense of the word, as our every effort shall be set forth to assist the building up of our little city which unquestionably is

The Coming City of the New Oklahoma.

Our faith is strengthened every day we are with you and we hope to share and enjoy a part, at least, of the prosperity and growth of our, at present, little metropolis.

We extend you a special invitation, one and all, to visit our store and make a careful inspection and examination of what we are offering. We are anxious to have at least a part of your trade and with this in view, we hope to conduct our business so as to merit your confidence and patronage by showing you as complete and suitable stock as our little city will demand and justify.

We Want Our Customers to Compare the Advantages to be Gained

By dealing with us in the way of prices and satisfactory merchandise, and if you find it to your interest to do your trading with us, we assure you we will do our utmost to warrant your trade and confidence.
